WINES

BAROLO, BRUNELLO di Montalcino and AMARONE della Valpolicella fully represent the great aged Italian red wines.

They are tannic wines with a rich bouquet of scents, with deep ruby red color, perfect with fall and winter foods, braised meats and stews, wild meats and roasted meats, mushrooms, truffles, salami and hard mature cheese.

Thanks to their characteristics are also good wines for meditation.

Next to these great quality wines, some red with different techniques of aging and other aging, deserve winery cellars visits with devoted tastings.

BARBARESCO, produced from Nebbiolo grapes, as the same for Barolo, is grown in the hills with the same name.

CLASSIC CHIANTI, produced in a broad area from Florence to Siena, from Sangiovese grapes.

CLASSIC VALPOLICELLA, produced by the grapes from which comes the Amarone, in a different percentage.

TAILOR-MADE EXPERIENCE START COOKING LIKE A LOCAL

Private and exclusive cooking classes with local star chef in Piedmont and in Tuscany: a good unusual chance to compare different culinary traditions, recipes and experiences.

Discover more about the chefs hidden secrets, during the convivial lunches with them at the end of the lessons, tasting the dishes and drinking a good glass of wine.

Each of these experiences is also suitable for small groups and for people without culinary experience and lasts about three hours.

Bon appetit!
